Hello, my name is ........ (in the exam they will introduce the evaluator who does not speak and you also have to hand in your answer sheet)

(Candidate A) And your names are?
(Candidate B) And you?
(Candidate A) Where are you from?
(Candidate A) Do you work or are you a student?
(Candidate B) Where do you live?
(Candidate B) What do you like about learning English?

(Candidate A)
Do you find it easy to find time to travel?
Would you prefer to go abroad on your next trip?

(Candidate B)
What would be your dream job?
Is money important to you?
In this part of the exam you need to speak alone for about 1 minute. I’d like you to describe and compare two images and to answer a short question (20-30 seconds).

(Candidate A) It’s your turn first. Your images are about education.

(Candidate B) How do you prefer to study, alone or with others?

(Candidate B) Now it’s your turn. Your images are about sport and exercise.

(Candidate A) How often do you work out with friends?
In Speaking Part 3 you need to speak to a partner about the following situation. You need to speak for 2-3 minutes.

You are arranging a meal for you and your classmates. Decide where to go for the meal taking into account the price and the likes and dislikes of your classmates.

- Indian restaurant
- Italian restaurant
- Japanese restaurant
- Chinese restaurant
- American restaurant

Now discuss the following questions (4 minutes):

1. Would you rather eat out in a restaurant or stay at home and have a meal with friends?
2. Have you ever had a really bad experience in a restaurant? (When/where?)
3. How often do you get something quick to eat like fast food?
4. Would you ever eat in a restaurant alone?
5. Do you think it is important to follow a healthy diet? (Why?)

Thank you, that’s the end of the test.
