

INTERCAMBIOIDIOMASONLINE

GERUND VS INFINITIVE 6

WWW.INTERCAMBIOIDIOMASONLINE.COM | Marc Andrew Huckle

Intercambioidiomas

Fill in the gaps with the gerund (ing) or the infinitive (to + verb):

1. It can be difficult _____ (afford) to buy a house in this day and age.
2. I imagine that you find it hard to resist _____ (scratch) your itchy leg.
3. My brother has offered _____ (lend) me his car for the weekend.
4. If you happen _____ (find) my wallet in your car, would you bring it over to my house?
5. I dare _____ (say) that you might have lost your mind.
6. I beg _____ (differ) from your view on the current political situation in the UK.
7. I really find it hard to tolerate _____ (have) to put up with his rudeness.
8. You should hurry _____ (finish) the exam before the time is up.

Intercambioidiomas

Answers:

1. It can be difficult to afford to buy a house in this day and age.
2. I imagine that you find it hard to resist scratching your itchy leg.
3. My brother has offered to lend me his car for the weekend.
4. If you happen to find my wallet in your car, would you bring it over to my house?
5. I dare to say that you might have lost your mind.
6. I beg to differ from your view on the current political situation in the UK.
7. I really find it hard to tolerate having to put up with his rudeness.
8. You should hurry to finish the exam before the time is up.